

CLINICAL TRIALS OF TEXAS, INC.

RSV Vaccine

Research Study

Clinical Trials of Texas, Inc is conducting a research study for an investigational vaccination against Respiratory Syncytial Virus, RSV. RSV is the most common cause of viral lower respiratory tract illness in infants and children worldwide.

Eligible participants must be:

- Male or Female, 1-12 months of age
- In general good health

Compensation for your time and travel may be available.

For more information, call (210) 949-0122 or go online:

SARESEARCH.COM